This Week's Game / Opponent

St. Edward escaped with a road win in Cincinnati against Elder 34-33. This week it does not get any easier when they head to Paul Brown Tiger Stadium to face the Massillon Tigers.

The Tigers are coming off a 55-0 win over Elkharty (Indiana). They have scored over 50 points in three straight games, while allowing only 17 points in that same span.

Jalen Slaughter, leads the team again this season. So far he has thrown for close to 300 yards and six touchdowns. Jacques Carter is his favorite target with 256 receiving yards.

The Tiger defense has been tough allowing just 17 points in three games with one shutout. Cody Fair and Dorian Pringle head up the defense that is allowing just under 200 total yards a game.

Last season Massillon used a late touchdown pass to beat the Eagles and give St. Ed's its only loss of the season.

This weeks game will be streamed live on Stedwardeagles.com and be shown on tape delay on Bally Sports Great Lakes.

GAME PREVIEW: St. Edward football to make its annual trip Massillon to face the 4-0 Tigers By Norm Weber

One big task after another and then another one is the way the season has gone for St. Edward football. Part of becoming a formidable football team is playing brand-name schools, which the Eagles had have done in the first four games of the season and will have done by Friday inside Paul Brown Tiger Stadium against the Tigers of Massillon High School.

This season the game against the Eagles will be one of eight home games for the Tigers. Some years they have nine at home.

"It's kind of frustrating, because they won't play here," Eagles Coach Tom Lombardo said. "We have a short week of practice, but that's what it is."

Former St. Edward Head Coach and Massillon Head Coach Mike Currence once said, "We have that many home games because all of our fans would go anywhere – as long as the opponents have a venue that could accommodate the 10-12 thousand fans who will go anywhere to watch us play."

St. Ed's (4-0) has been rapidly getting ready for Massillon (4-0).

"We just have a shorter week, but coming back home in a long trip from Cincinnati and then have a Friday game is a little more difficult. We've played Saturdays/Fridays before, slightly more."

Two years ago in Massillon the Tigers brought in a freshman quarterback named Jalen Slaughter, who had a great game in 2021.

Slaughter is only going to be half the deal.

"They run a two-quarterback system," Coach Lombardo said. "They have a transfer from Copley, DaOne Owens. He's six foot two and 200 pounds. He's a running dual type of quarterback. A Division I player. Maybe the most electrifying one we've seen all year. They have a dynamic offense."

Entering the lineup as a freshman in the last two seasons makes him a pro at facing St. Edward. Slaughter is more the pro. They rotate quarterbacks. Last year Slaughter threw a TD pass on fourth down and 11 seconds left. That made the difference in the game and turned out to be the only loss of the season.

"It is going to be a challenge," Lombardo said. "It's similar to what Elder did to us. They have similar schemes with dynamic playmakers."

Also, some of these games are getting too cardiaclike. Now's the time to shore it up.

The Eagles have three bruising running backs with Josh Groudle, Brandon White and Jacob Robinson. They are usd interchangeably but sometimes in the same backfield. At one point the Eagles were in a traditional T-ormation of the 6-s asnd 70s.

"Something like that, but only in a shotgun," Lombardo said.

Lombardo, is also the offensive coordinator.

"We had those two turnovers at the beginning game (both leading to scores).," he said. "One we were driving a near their 30-20 yard lines. We had a lot of penalties."
