This Week's Game / Opponent

St. Edward returns to the friendly confines of First Federal Lakewood Stadium to host River Rouge of Michigan.

This will be the first ever matchup between the two schools. It also marks the first time since 2019 that the Eagles will battle a Michigan team.

River Rouge, members of the Michigan Metropolitan Athletic Conference, won the Michigan state title in 2019. They are 1-3 on the year and will play their second team from Ohio this season.

The Panthers are lead by Nick Marsh, the number three rated player in the state of Michigan according to 247 sports. He is a Michigan State commit. Daivon Hill is a top 50 player in the state and a number of D1 offers. They also have the 21st rated junior in the state in Jordon Farrow. He holds offers from a number of MAC schools.

The Eagles will look to get back on the winning track after dropping a 15-13 game to the Massillon Tigers. St. Ed's is 7-2 against Michigan teams. Their last opponent was Cass Tech in 2019.

This week's game will be streamed on Stedwardeagles.com and be shown on tape delay on Bally Sports Great Lakes.

GAME PREVIEW: Eagles have put the last game behind them, ready to start a new streak against River Rouge

By Norm Weber

LAKESWOOD – After finishing up the films Monday from the Massillon game, St. Edward varsity football has put the loss behind and are now ready to move on and start a new winning streak against River Rouge out of Michigan at 2 p.m. Saturday inside First Federal Lakewood Stadium.

The loss snapped a 15-game winning streak by the Eagles, carrying over from last year's state championship season, the second in a row.

A few years ago, River Rouge won the state title in football in Michigan in 2019 to be exact. "They have a receiver who is the best we've seen all year," St. Edward Head Coach Tom Lombardo said. "He's had a lot of (Division I) offers. He's a lot like the receiver we saw from Our Lady of Good Council."

The wide receiver, Nick Mash, has verbally committed to Michigan State.

This is the fourth out-of-state opponent the Eagles (4-1) have seen this year. It's one of those situations when the two schools have no common opponents. So, throw out the record books on this one.

The Panthers have played St. John's Jesuit, Brother Rice, and Grand Rapids Catholic Central. They won their first game against Bloomfield Brother Rice last week, 28-16.

"They have a lot of size up front," Coach Lombardo said. "They have a good defense that is able to get to the ball. They can do a lot of things with that receiver, including the big play."

Making plays on defense will be crucial in every situation that Marsh touches the ball.

"They have some good picks on the film, really good picks," Coach Lombardo said. "They made plays so they can win the game. We both had two scores (against Massillon). It was a matter of extra points, 3-1, in a 15-13 final."

Although the penalties against Elder two weeks ago were a hindrance to what the Eagles wanted to do. It wasn't as bad in Massillon because the officials called big penalties on both teams, it affected the Eagles more.

"We have to fix that up too," Coach Lombardo said. "Some of them were situations where they couldn't help (from committing the infraction). We had a lot of facemasks both ways."

Still, other things need to be fixed – dropped balls, fumbles, etc. We are not as solid as we want to be."

Sophomore Brandon White is on the fast track. He was already making strides as a freshman, and in the offseason did enough to get a varsity spot. He's been running for over 100 yards in games, and scoring touchdowns.

"About the end of the freshman year, we thought he could go varsity," the coach said. "We felt he could go now and he's done a good job."

Marsh is the antagonist to White in this scene – two powerful weapons on offense.

Lombardo said the quarterback of River Rouge is solid.

One thing the Eagles will need is a little luck in the turnover ratio. In most games so far, the other team had the advantage.

On the brighter side, St. Edward's win streak all the way into the title game started after the loss to Massillon. There's a good chance that things will take shape in the same manner.

There has been some scuttlebutt about the Eagles going to Massillon three years in a row, and the eight or nine home-game set-up the Tigers have every year. Johnathon Simmons of the Plain Dealer and Cleveland.com asked Coach Lombardo why the Eagles played Massillon in Tiger Town the last three years.

"It's a tough field to play on," Coach Lombardo said. "We've played three straight years. We offered home-and-home, and they won't do it. We have to think about that. We deserve to have a game played in our place too. Their administration or whatever says no. We should have home and home like all the other schools we play. There is no reason the game should be played here."

Former St. Ed's and Massillon Head Coach Mike Currence once said, "We have to have the games played here. We tell them that if they had a stadium large enough to play at their place, we'd do it. Our fans, 10,000-15,000, will go anywhere to watch us play."

River Rouge will be a team that hails from the sixth different county St. Edward has played this season.
