This Week's Game / Opponent

Northeast Ohio bragging rights are on the line in this final week of the football season. St. Ed's, the top rated team in division one will face the number two team in division two Archbishop Hoban

The Eagles come into the matchup after holding off Cincinnati Moeller 28-21 in Lakewood. Meanwhile Hoban, undefeated is coming off a 28-13 win over St. Francis of New York.

This game features thirteen players with Division One commits (St. Ed's 8, Hoban 5) seven will play for power five conference teams.

This series started in the 1960's which was dominated by Hoban with a 7-1 record. It did take a hiatus but resumed in 2016 where the Eagles have won three of the last 4 games.

Could this be a game of young running backs? Sophomore Brandon White of the Eagles rushed for 262 yards vs Moeller. Freshman Brent Feister of Hoban last week rushed for 192 yards against St. Francis in relief of their starting running Caleb Jones.

It's a battle of Holy Cross Schools from Dowed Field in Akron.

GAME PREVIEW:

By Norm Weber

In playing against brother school Archbishop Hoban Friday in Akron, St. Edward varsity football is just about everyone's game of the week. Another exciting game is on the horizon.

At 8-0, Hoban is ranked No. 1 in the state in Division II and St. Ed's (8-1) No. 1 in Division I. They are also the top two ranked teams in Greater Cleveland.

"It should be a great game," St. Edward Head Coach Tom Lombardo said. "The kids are super excited to be playing again. We have quite a gamut of a schedule. Maybe it culminates with this game. It's another Holy Cross school having an excellent football tradition as well. They have a lot of excellent players on the field, the Division I type."

Among those who have already committed to Division I schools include Devin Bell (Miami University) and Tysen Campbell (Central Michigan) are among those.

In Saturday's 28-21 win against Moeller, the Eagles survived a fourth-quarter scare when Moeller came back to score two fourth-quarter touchdowns and threw an incomplete pass into the end zone as time expired.

"Our pass defense for the year has been pretty solid," Coach Lombardo said. "There was a quarter that we let our guard down. They took advantage of it. I told the kids, generally, you have to play four quarters. You have to finish the game."

After Jordan Marshall, one of the top running backs in the state, left the game with injury, the Crusaders went to the passing game. Jovan Love caught nine passes for 192 yards and two touchdowns.

"Sometimes it is a natural tendency," Coach Lombardo said. "You get up 21-0 at halftime. You think you are in a good position. They make the long pass and we go out and score again. At that point we should have controlled the ball better on offense and stopped them better from making big-chunk plays, defensively. We just didn't do it. That's something we have to fix."

For the fourth week in a row, St. Edward won the turnover ratio. Xavier Styles had two interceptions and Eddie Andrews one.

"That was great," Coach said. "The first half interceptions were big. We had one in the end zone. We had two that gave us good field position. We didn't do much with it, but we caught our wind in the second quarter offensively.

You have to be happy running the ball for the amount of yardage we did and being efficient in the passing game. We missed some opportunities in the passing game.

Guys were open and we just missed them. They were tough conditions, so give Moeller credit. He didn't have a high completion percentage, but his yards per pass were big."

Matt Ponotoski completed 16 of 36 pass attempts but threw for 368 yards and three touchdowns."

Hoban does some of the things other opponents have done this year, but at other times has a unique touch.

"They give you a lot of formations on offense," Coach Lombardo said. "Some bigger personell units and then they'll spread. That gives us a challenge."

The defense for the Knights is solid.

"Defensively, they play with the same style," Coach Lombardo said. "They really are aggressive. They get off the ball. They have a great D line. They are physical. They want to run at you and stop the run on defense. When you put all that together, it is quite a challenge.

Having such an intense game the week before the playoffs can wear down a team for the playoffs, but it also has a playoff feel, in a way starting the playoffs early.

"It's a good thing," Coach Lombardo said. "You want to be playing at a high level going into the playoffs. You can only do that by challenging yourself against good opponents. This game made us better. We learned a lot about ourselves. This week they will challenge us. Then we are who we are going into Week 11."

The teams the Eagles beat are starting to win a lot more, making the schedule look as strong as it did before the season started.

"This is the culmination of a really good schedule," Lombardo concurred. "We've seen different things, different styles of play. I said from Day 1, that is the goal that we want. We want to be playing our best ball going into week 11. We know who we are. We have been preparing each week for the playoffs. The winner-go-home type thing. Each game has been that type of challenge. It's just business as usual as we continue into the playoffs."

All kinds of scenarios have faced the Eagles this season, and most they have been able to unravel.

"We're finding our niche together," the coach said. "Even if we have to play our backup quarterback (Thomas Csanyi), we find ways to deal with that. Our team's been tested in a lot of ways throughout the season. We're bringing in another test in this game, playing under pressure, which playoff games are. If we get deep into the playoffs, it allows us to play better under pressure with poise."
