GAME PREVIEW By Norm Weber

LAKEWOOD – Every summer St. Edward scrimmages a Central Ohio team -- one of the Pickerington's, one of the Olentangy's, et al, which allows the football Eagles to get a feel for that area.

Although in a small sense, this provides experience they can look back upon. The Eagles have Bradley out of Davidson in the state semifinal Friday on Arlin Field in Mansfield.

"It has been helpful," St. Ed's head coach Tom Lombardo said. "Pickerington North is a good team. They were a great team this year, but got beat by Hilliard Bradley this year. We do get a sense of teams in Columbus. They bring their teams up to see what we have here by scrimmaging us. Their coach said that.

"It's a great thing. We get to stay home and they like to come up and play. It doesn't hurt to get a feel for Columbus-area teams like that."

St. Edward's defense will be presented with another challenge.

"Their quarterback (Bradyn Fleharty) is something special," Coach Lombardo said. "He is probably the best player I've seen all year. His strength is in how he impacts his team and the game. He's a dual threat quarterback who can run it and throw it. He's a lot like Fran Tarkenton and maybe nobody knows who this is (the ultimate scrambling quarterback who led the Minnesota Vikings to three Super Bowls), but he scrambles around and makes plays like I've never seen before. He is something."

Coffman is the only team to beat the Jaguars (13-1) right now. "The quarterback is outstanding. They have good, outstanding receivers. They make plays.

Their defense is solid. They play hard. They have big guys up front and run the ball really well," coach Lombardo said.

"They are so unique and the people they have are quite a challenge to prepare for," the coach said about Bradley. We spent a lot of time on how we are going to do it, and how we are able to handle it." St. Ed's (13-1) can carry that experience against a challenging quarterback to the next game with another signal caller, which adds more of a running dimension.

"We did a good job in keeping them out of the end zone instead," the coach said about Medina. Medina hasn't been held down to 30, 40 points in that range most of the season.

"It was kind of that we misjudged the ball and knocked each other off and the kid made a great play."

Then the Eagles held the Battling Bees to zero points the rest of the game, 3 and a half quarters on the touchdowns.

"They made some first downs on bubble screens and hit some passes over the middle," the coach said. "Once we hit our stride they had trouble moving the ball. I think we played as well as we could, controlling the line of scrimmage and we were able to effectively run the football."

Knowing that they put the clamps on the dangerous quarterback from Medina (Danny Stoddard, it might give the Eagles experience and more confidence.

"It's similar to Medina. Stoddard likes to run and scramble a little, but not to the extent that this quarterback we are going to see," he comparatively said. "He's really special. He's a track star and probably runs a 4.5 40. He's excellent on his feet."
