GAME PREVIEW By Norm Weber

St. Edward football (1-0) will be put to the test when they face the number 7 ranked team in New Jersey in Delbarton (0-0). Kickoff is at 1 p.m. Saturday inside First Federal Lakewood Stadium.

New Jersey starts the season a week later, so the Green Wave has not played a regular season game yet, so there is nothing to compare.

They have a film from Don Bosco in a scrimmage game.

"It was kind of what we did against Toledo Central Catholic (game simulation)," said St. Edward coach Tom Lombardo. "We do have the film so we have a feel from it, so we know what some of the things they do that way."

They are in that league (Super Football Conference) with Bergen Catholic, Malvern Prep, St. Joe Regional, Don Bosco and St. Peters.

Three years ago they went to the New Jersey Non-Public state championship game, before falling to Bergen Catholic.

"They are a well-coached team," said Lombardo. "They've had some success in the past couple years. They have smart teams. The school is really good. They get players who understand and play hard. It's another big test."

Last winter Delbarton came to Northeast Ohio to wrestle. St. Ed's won, knocking the Green Wave out of the top 10 and putting the Eagles in the top ten nationally. As a school, St. Ed's is top of the line in relationships, so when the Eagles compete against a school in one sport, fans can see them compete in another sport.

"They were a contact," Lombardo said. "We talked to them a little before that. They have a week zero game and they can travel like us. They wanted to take that big trip out, so that helped out. I went to that match and was able to meet some of the people there. They have some tough wrestlers, as well.

In last week's win over Pickerington North a lot of good things happened. The defense broke the record with five or more tacklers on the ball, which is what swarms are.

"That's encouraging to see," the coach said. "We broke a lot of tackles on offense. Turnovers, explosives and tackles. We're looking at breaking tackles on offense and missed tackles on defense. It tells you the game in a lot of ways. We did a good job on offense. We had three explosives and they had none.

"We had a turnover and they had none, but we stopped them a lot of times. We had a lot of broken tackles. The yards per contact was amazing."

The Eagle defense had 15 swarms for the game.

"We've never played them (Delbarton) so we have to go out and play our game, he said. "The three things -- turnovers, explosives, get tackles on defense and break tackles on offense. I'd like to keep stressing those things. Take advantage of big-play opportunities and limit the opponent to those things. To be able to tackle the opponent and get yards after contact."
