GAME PREVIEW By Norm Weber

LAKEWOOD – Kickoff will be at 7 Friday on Tressel Field inside Finnie Stadium on the campus of Baldwin Wallace University when St. Edward varsity football takes on Pickerington North.

The Eagles are entering the game with big things on their minds, but first is the initial task at hand – Pickerington North.

“If you look at the whole off season, starting in January, this team is extremely dedicated,” St. Ed’s coach Tom Lombardo said. “We have a lot of good leaders. We had a really strong summer. This is one of our best and efficient summers, in my opinion.”

The Eagles won two key scrimmages against Mentor and Toledo Central Catholic.

“We got a lot accomplished. It showed up in the scrimmages,” Coach Lombardo said. “I feel like we played with some confidence. We played together and we played pretty hard.”

The coaching staff is close to have a starting lineup for Friday.

“We’re still filling some spots and figuring what piece fits into what puzzle,” Lombardo said. “For the most part, it’s early in the year and the kids seem to be enjoying themselves.”

As far as a starting lineup goes for Friday against Pick North, one can count on who played in the scrimmages who will be the ones in those same roles.

“The depth chart is a work in progress,” the coach said.

As usual, St. Edward is loaded with out-of-town teams, and out-of-state teams such as Delbarton out of New Jersey, Bishop McNamara out of Maryland and Football North out of Canada.

“I don’t know what we can say about them. We have a few tapes on them. Wayne has a great team and a five-star wide receiver (Jamier Brown), who is one of the top kids in the country. He’ll probably end up going to Ohio State. They have speed,” the coach said.

The Eagles have three out-of-state teams, and six overall out-side northeast Ohio.

“As it is every year, our schedule is the toughest we can find,” the coach said. “Our kids have earned that right to do that. We can’t get just any old games. Teams are going to call us when they feel they are at the top of their game and take a shot at us.”

Strong schedule, but the first week is in the very near future.

“Right now, we are just worried about Pick North,” Lombardo said. “We want to get off on the right foot in that first game against Pick North and then turn around for Delbarton. We’ll get to work on them Saturday and Sunday right after this game.

Last season, Pick North became stronger after playing St. Ed’s in the first week, and after losing to the Eagles, winning eight straight and making it to the regional final.

The Panthers are led by quarterback Jaron Mock.

“Their whole D line is returning from 2024. They have a good set of linebackers and the secondary is strong. They have more back on defense than they do on offense,” Lombardo said.

The quarterback, running back and a couple offensive linemen return.

“On film, again they look like one of the top teams in Columbus,” the coach said. “They look as good as they did last year. They lost to Liberty in the regional final. They are knocking on the door and it certainly is a great opening game.”

The Eagles are entering with enthusiasm.

“They are really excited,” Lombardo said. “We had a good practice. People are cheering and excited to get out there and work hard. We have been working to hard for this.

“We can’t believe Friday night is upon us. It begins even before school starts. Because of the expansion of the playoffs, this is the second or third row that this has happened. That’s what happens when they add a week of playoffs and move the season up. It just comes upon us a lot faster. We’re ready to play. We know it is a long season,” coach Lombardo said.

As most sports at St. Ed’s, each game is a preparation for the post season.

“The first game doesn’t make or break you by any means. You go through metamorphosis changes throughout the season. That’s true for any team. This is for numerous factors. Kids get more experience. We have to move kids around. We find a kid playing well at the JV level and he winds up in the starting role. A lot of those things transpire,” Lombardo said.
