GAME PREVIEW By Norm Weber

Playoff Game Preview: St. Edward vs. Whitmer

Overview

St. Edward continues its playoff run at 7:00 PM on Friday, facing Whitmer in a regional semifinal match-up at First Federal Lakewood Stadium. This marks another crucial step for the Eagles as they advance through the postseason, with the stakes getting higher each week.

Scouting Whitmer

Eagles' fans are familiar with Whitmer, having seen them in last season's playoffs, which resulted in a St. Edward victory. The Panthers have demonstrated their ability to score prolifically, surpassing 30 points in six games, reaching the 40-point mark four times, and even exceeding 50 points twice this season.

According to coach Tom Lombardo, "They have a different style than Berea-Midpark. They are a real physical running team." Whitmer's offensive strength lies in their backfield, which features three big running backs. (Joey Moraled: 901 yards, 11 touchdowns; Jamon Holmes: 777 yards, 18 touchdowns; Jaden Jones: 562 yards, 5 touchdowns.)

The Panthers rotate these backs to keep them fresh throughout the game, supported by an excellent offensive line that includes a couple of players weighing close to 300 pounds. Kyle Koopsman, 6'4" and 285 lbs, has 11 college offers; Carter Baldwin is a 285-pound freshman. Two of the running backs are nearing the 1,000-yard milestone for the season, which, combined with their size up front, could pose significant challenges for the Eagle defense.

St. Edward's Momentum

The Eagles have also had a successful season offensively, scoring over 40 points in six games, including last week's dominant playoff win against Berea-Midpark, 45-14. Coach Lombardo noted, "The Eagles are excited for the challenge. We know what the stakes are now, when we get to the sweet 16. Everybody is good and we have to raise to our best game and level of play, which we are trying to do."

Playoff Mindset

For St. Edward, each playoff game is approached as if it could be their last. The team embraces a mentality of starting fresh after every win, treating each new challenge with a 0-0 mindset. Coach Lombardo emphasized the importance of preparation, saying, "I think we have a good plan. We have to have good practices, particularly for this next game. Act like you are ready to play."

As the playoffs progress, every game becomes an elimination round, with half of the remaining teams being sent home each week. In addition to St. Edward and Whitmer, Mentor and McKinley remain in contention within the region. Notably, five teams that the Eagles faced during the regular season are still alive in the playoffs, underscoring the level of competition and the strength of their schedule.

Friday's game will stream on the Eagles Sports Network (stedwardeagles.com). Due to OHSAA playoff broadcast regulations, only live audio will be available, with video released later; longtime announcer Adam Mendoza will provide play-by-play coverage.
