GAME PREVIEW By Norm Weber

Regional Championship Showdown: Mentor vs. St. Edward

On Friday at 7 p.m., the Mentor football team will travel to Byers Field at Bob Boulton Stadium to participate in the regional championship game. This event features two well-matched rivals: Mentor, currently undefeated with a season record of 12-0, and St. Edward, holding a record of 10-2. The teams have met frequently during both playoff and regular season games, adding significance to this matchup for both players and spectators. St. Edward holds a 10-7 advantage in the series and has secured victories in the last four meetings. In their previous encounter, St. Edward prevailed 13-7 in challenging conditions at Bedford Bearcat Stadium.

Team Breakdown: Mentor Cardinals

The Cardinals are well-equipped for the challenge, boasting a solid lineup led by quarterback Brogan Jones. Jones has earned praise for his versatility, demonstrating both running and passing abilities—especially his skill at throwing on the run. Coach Tom Lombardo describes him as "a real football player who just goes out there and plays." The receiving corps features standouts Bradley Trivisonno, Justin Hodge, and Logan Berwald, providing reliable targets for Jones and adding depth to the offensive attack.

Mentor's strength up front is also notable, with Andrew Greedy anchoring the offensive line. With Jackson Farley contributing, the Cardinals present a formidable front line that has consistently supported their successful offensive plays throughout the season. The team also boasts a couple of MAC (Mid-American Conference) commits, further highlighting the talent across the roster.

St. Edward Eagles: Injury Concerns and Adjustments

St. Edward enters the game with some uncertainty due to key injuries with Mentor. Running back Jackson Farley, described by Coach Lombardo as a "straight back" and a "good rusher," has been sidelined, and his status for the game remains unclear. The Eagles are recovering and may need to make strategic adjustments, possibly introducing new plays or approaches to offset their injury challenges.

Coach Lombardo notes, "Everyone knows they're going to run, so they might try some new things." In response to their changing lineup, the Eagles could present a different look on offense, aiming to surprise Mentor and capitalize on opportunities. A strong offensive line, featuring Mason Wilhelm, an Ohio State commit, will be essential for the Eagles as they strive to stifle Mentor's defensive efforts and establish their own rhythm.

Coaching Strategies and Game Expectations

Injuries are a reality for both teams, but as Coach Lombardo emphasizes, "Teams don't practice any differently based on who is suited up or not. They run the same plays." Even with some of their key players sidelined, both squads are expected to stick with their proven offensive strategies, though they may introduce minor changes to adapt to the circumstances. Both teams have demonstrated resilience and adaptability throughout the season, setting the stage for an exciting and competitive championship game.
